His country was the ruling passion f his life, from the beginning, even to the end. There was no hour when he would not turn aside from everything else to preach the doctrine of Americanism, of the principles and of the faith upon which American Government rested."

OWNERSHIP BY U. S.

Permanent government ownership of the railroads as "the only solution of the problem" today was advocated before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee by A. B. Garretson, of the Railroads Brotherhoods.

Garretson sald he represented praccally all the railroad unions, with total membership of 1,300,000 men. "We are strongly of the opinion that the railroads can be best administered by a direct government gency, operated not to make profits out to furnish service at actual cost o the people," he said.

Garretson said he indorsed the genral principle of the plan outlined before the committee a few days ago by Glenn E. Plumb, although he thought there might be much difference of opinion among railway men as to many of the details,
